As to Reporters.

Philadelphia Bulletin.

The newspaper reporter is undoubtedly a peculiar person, and none know his peculiarities so well as those who employ him. As a species of the human family, presenting of course, a certain proportion of abnormal exceptions to the general rule, he is a person of enthusiasm, enterprise and much endurance. He is not always or generally imaginative. His best types run rather toward systematic accuracy as to facts, the tendency toward imaginative flights being usually crushed out by editors, who prefer facts to fancy in their news columns. The fancy reporter, of whom "Goth" is perhaps the highest American type, dwells wholly in the regions of imagination, and wins literary renown and reward at the sacrifice of moral reputation as a person mindful of the truth. But the regular, average daily reporter is a hard-worked drudge, for whom a great diversity of gifts is needed. He must be ubiquitous. He must be of all parties, schools and creeds, or else of no party, school, or creed. He must be ambidextrous, and capable of living without food or sleep. He must "keep the ran" of a variety of things, past, present and to come, as incongruous and conflicting as the articles in a cyclopedia. He must never make a mistake. He must have the patience of Griselda, and the sweet temper of a saint. He must return snubs with smiles, and when he is refused at the front door, he must get his information at the back gate. He must be intensely interested in the most intensely stupid people and things, and must frequently sit in the seat of the scorned at the feast which he is to glorify in the next day's paper. He must be as methodical as a clock, and as voracious as a weathercock. He must be all things to all men, if by any means he may get an item. He must be a person knowing all things, and having no opinions about anything. He must contribute largely to his newspaper, and never have his individuality recognized.

ALL SORTS.

The Boston Post considers Japan the most promising American colony in the world.

The New York Tribune recommends Kentucky as the best State for a poor man to emigrate to.

In proportion to the number who ride on them more men are injured on mowing machines than on railroad cars.

Only 100,000 silver dollars can be loaded on a dray, and there are more than $8,000,000 in silver in the vaults of the treasury at Washington.

Good strong blown-glass tumblers are delivered in England from American glass works at 8 pence per dozen. This makes English glass works shiver.

The oldest house in Boston has been demolished. It stood at the corner of Moon and Sun-Court streets, North square, and was built 201 years ago.

The new elevated railroad in New York is mortgaged to the tune of $1,020,000 per mile. It is supposed this immense indebtedness is assumed for the purpose of preventing property-holders from recovering any compensation for damages.

Though Shaking Like an Aspen Leaf With the chills and fever, the victim of malaria may still recover by using the celebrated specific, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which not only breaks up the most aggravated attacks, but prevents their recurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine, not only because it does the business far more thoroughly, but also on account of its perfect wholesomeness and invigorating action upon the entire system. Testimony is concurrent, positive and ample showing the decisive nature of its effects, and that it is no more palliative. Physicians concede its excellence, and there is a constant influx of communications from persons in every class of society avouching its merits, and bearing witness to its superiority over other remedies for malarial disease. It is especially popular throughout the West, wherever fever and ague prevail, as it does in many of the fairest and most fertile portions of that vast region.

of Vermilion Co.
For Senator—5th District,
WILLIAM T. HOFFERT, of Macon County.
For Representative—5th District,
DR. JOHN E. TYLER,
of DeWitt County.
COUNTY TICKET:
For Sheriff,
MARTIN FORSTNER,
For Coroner,
FRANK W. HAINES.

SMITH AND MATTHEWS at the court house on Friday evening.

Don't go to "plumping" on representatives. Cast one and a half votes each for Latham and Tyler.

That gloo club from Champagne, which will sing at the Republican meeting on Friday night, is "a good one." Come out and hear it.

SENATOR FORSTNER and J. A. Brown had a splendid meeting at Bethel school house, in Friends Creek township, last night. The attendance was large and the interest manifested entirely unusual. Friends Creek will send up a good majority for the Republican ticket next Tuesday.

THE Democratic game in this district is to divide the Republican vote between Cannon and Harper, while every good Democrat is expected to march up to the polls and cast his ballot for Malden Jones. Will Republicans allow themselves to be thus imposed upon?

MARTIN FORSTNER has been a good and efficient officer for two years. The sheriff's office was never more satisfactorily filled than by him. Give him two years more in the same position, and the people will have no cause to regret it.

MALDEN JONES' energy still acquiesces a good deal over our proposition to get up a good advertisement for its congressional candidate in Decatur. Mr. Jones has made no speeches in the larger towns of the district, and we want him to have a fair show in one of them. Trot him out, and we'll insure him a good audience.

We owe much of the freedom we enjoy to the Republican party. The best way to show our gratitude is to support the party in the coming struggle on the 8th of November. It stood by the nation in its hour of peril. Let every patriot stand by it now.

SAID President Hayes: "What our country needs to revive business and to give employment to labor is a restoration of confidence. We need confidence in the stability of the financial policy of the Government. The confidence has for many months past been slowly but steadily increasing."

A DEMOCRAT of this city, who is not a very profound scholar, but who slowly and laboriously spells out a portion of the contents of a newspaper whenever chance throws one in his way, says he "can't see any sense in all this fuss about flat money. Ain't flat money just as good as round money?"

SAID MASON in his work on currency: "As the emission of inconvertible paper progresses all prices advance, and the rates of wages are enhanced with other things. But unfortunately for the laborer, it is a rule almost without exception that the prices of all the necessities of life rise more than wages."

"Flat Tippecanoe and Tyler too," is the way the old-sung man, 80 years ago, kept up a good deal of the old Tippecanoe, who will speak at the Tabernacle on Saturday afternoon. Let the veterans of 1840 turn out on that occasion and give a hearty welcome to the illustrious descendant of the old hero in whose behalf their enthusiasm was kindled in those good old days.

THE Albany Journal says the prospects of the Republican party in New York are all that the most ardent Republican could desire. The Republicans are united and active; they have made strong gains throughout the state, and the Democrats are demoralized. The conditions seem the best for the party to carry the state, secure a Republican majority, and make a gain to the Government.

THE REAL DEMOCRATIC IDEA.

It is not so much the desire of the Democratic party to destroy the national bank and increase the greenback volume of currency as it is to obtain control of Congress, so as to be enabled to wipe out both the national bank notes and the greenback currency, and to return to the State Rights demand for State banks. The policy has its origin in the jealousy and hatred of everything national, which distinguishes the Democratic party North and South, and which shows itself on every hand in ill-concealed efforts to drag the nation back into the narrow rut in which it moved before the war, when its feebler members called forth mockery from its foes, and when its weakness was the pity of every patriot. This scheme of irresponsible issues of currency is manifestly intended to pander to the dangerous passions of men, to stir up strife between capital and labor for political profit, and recklessly to toy with the spirit of discontent which misfortune produces, and which, when aroused to desperation by the cunning suggestions of malice, often runs to great excesses. This whole policy can be best described as a dangerous, detestable, and covert assault upon the safety of society and upon the best interests of all classes; and the duty of patriotic and fervent resistance to it is as clear as when we were called, in 1861, to save the nation from the direful effects of the long-lurking poison of secession.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

The Republicans of Macon county have before them an unexceptionable ticket, each and every candidate being in all respects worthy the support of good citizens. From General John C. Smith to Frank W. Haines the ticket is made up of men who are in every way qualified to fill the offices for which they are running, and who are eminently trustworthy in all their dealings with their neighbors. If any other party offered better men there might be some excuse for Republicans to desert their ticket, but we cheerfully challenge comparison of candidates. The ticket offered for the support of the Republicans has no superior in the field. Vote it from top to bottom.

MR. JEWELL, in his speech last night, said that Jesse Harper is the most irresponsible man he ever knew. And yet people are asked to send him to Congress as a Reformer. Save the mark!

PRESIDENT WOOLLEY, of Yale College, who, in 1876, made a speech in favor of Tilden's election to the Presidency, in a recent interview, said of him:

I can imagine a case in which a General might think it advisable for some reason that he should not show himself, and he might prevent the outline of his plans to his subordinates officers and direct them to devote all their energies toward bringing about certain results without communicating the steps of their progress to him. Tilden's desire of any knowledge of what was going on around him, leads one to think he may have taken a similar course; that he may have mapped out the course, and then left it for his friends to accomplish. He must have been aware of the outline of the plan, and it is hard to believe that he was not cognizant of the details as the work advanced. The publication of the cipher dispatches makes it impossible for him again to ask the people's suffrages. I sincerely hope we may be spared another such open trading for the highest office in the land. It was a disgrace, and if Mr. Tilden was not the leader in it, he was undoubtedly participant criminal.

Lincoln's Honesty.

When Lincoln was postmaster in a small Illinois village, word came that the Post Office Agent would be along in a day or two to collect the money due to the Government. It was about $75, and one of Lincoln's friends, alarmed lest the young postmaster should be embarrassed by the sudden demand for so much money, offered to lend him the sum. Mr. Lincoln declined with thanks the proffered kindness, and going to the upper shelf of a closet, brought down a bag containing the amount in the very coins which had come into his hands. He said that he never allowed himself to use, even for a day, money which was in his possession belonging to other people.

In his speech at Philadelphia, the other evening, Senator Conkling turned the lesson of the Glasgow Bank failure to good account by way of illustration. He said:

Those who have just been ruined in the cotton failure in Scotland—the failure of the Bank of Glasgow for $1,000,000—would be glad, indeed, if British consuls had been deposited, so American consuls are deposited, for security for the circulation of the currency—that circulation which the other day, in the twinkling of an eye, ceased to exist in her hand, and I saw in the Times, yesterday, that an assessment, so I remember, of four times the amount of the shares held by the respective stockholders had already been made upon them. I say in the hearing of all, that under our national banking system, the failure of the bank of Glasgow could not have occurred, and I do not refer to our provisions for the security of the circulation alone, but to all the provisions of the National Banking law.

"THE INDEPENDENT VOTER."

The New York Herald, which is independent in politics, discusses at considerable length the question, "Is the Democratic party breaking up?" After surveying the field in a general way, it adds:

While the Republicans have drawn back to them a part of the independent vote they lost in 1876, the Democratic party has undoubtedly and persistently alienated the sympathy and confidence of this class by anxiously running after the tramps. Do the Democratic leaders really believe that the tramp vote is going to elect the next President? They are greatly mistaken. The country wants, above all other things, peace, order, and stability. It will carry into power in 1880 that party which promised these things. But the Democrats appear to care for nothing of the kind. In the North they ignore the disapproval of the currency; in the South they add to this a new interference with the political rights of citizens. Can they not see that this attitude of theirs is fatal to their success two years hence? That it repels all the great mass of thoughtful and influential independent voters who would like to see a change in administration, who think the Republican party has been in power too long, but who will not help to a change which would, as they are fast coming to believe, be certainly for the worse?

THE Galveston News admits that the Democratic explanations of the building at Montgomery are unsatisfactory. A special correspondent of the News was sent to investigate the outrage on the Greenbackers, and he reports that the presence of men with guns is admitted, and the disposition to carry the whole ticket through by force, if necessary, is partially conceded. The Hon. C. B. Stewart, a signer of the Texas declaration of independence, writes the Telegraph to say that the Greenback speakers came at the invitation of a Republican, and a Democratic committee waited on them to inform them that the Democrats would decline to listen. Four Deputy United States Marshals were ordered to Montgomery to investigate the affair.

No Failure Known.

There is no case on record where Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound has failed to give satisfaction. On the other hand, wherever it has been used by our people, in severe colds, coughs, asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and consumption, they are enthusiastic in its praise. Containing no opium or other dangerous drug, it does not constipate, and is safe to administer in all conditions of health. This is an important announcement, and the suffering are advised to heed it. Trial size, 10 cents; large sizes, 50 cts and One Dollar. Sold by Dr. A. J. Stoner, druggist, Decatur, Ill.

Also agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which is sure death to worms, pleasant to take, and requires no physic. Price 25 cents. Try it. Sept. 1—d&w

M. M. DUNCAN, Republican candidate for Clerk of the Appellate Court, passed through this city yesterday. He has been making quite a thorough canvass of the District, and is very much encouraged with the prospects of his own and the party's success. The Republicans are mainly standing together in support of the ancient faith, while the Democrats are quarreling among themselves on the greenback question and separating into hostile factions. Mr. Duncan returns to his own county, Macoupin, to spend the remaining days before the election, expecting to receive at their hands the compliment of a very general and cordial support.—State Journal.

SEVER NEWS.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Pall Mall Gazette editorially declares that the Treaty of Berlin is a failure, and that it will be impossible by it to arrive at a pacific solution, and that the sooner this fact is recognized the better. Peace, it says, must be maintained by commanding the arrest of reckless power which has kept Europe in commotion for years past and now threatens to break away from all law and all restraint. If this is only to be done in concert, and concert is a give and take matter for benefits which all parties must pay something, it follows that we should not shrink from any price in reason.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Times in admitting that the time has come when some step must be taken in the matter of non-execution of the Treaty of Berlin, thinks a collective representation of the powers will be most effectual, and believes France, Austria and Germany will not hesitate to act with England in protecting the provisions of the treaty.

MEMPHIS, October 29.—The weather has moderated and light rain has been falling since early this morning. From 6 o'clock last night till noon to-day undertakers report orders for seven interments. This includes deaths both in and outside of the city.

W. J. Chase acting Postmaster was stricken with fever last night. The wife of Captain Tom Caldwell, who returned from Glasgow, Ky., last Wednesday was prostrated with fever yesterday.

The following is a copy of the telegram sent this morning to the chairman of the relief committees in the principal cities of the country:

The inland towns that had yellow fever ask us to assist them in paying balances they owe. Fifteen thousand dollars will be required. We have barely enough to pay our own debts. If you have any funds on hand subscribed for yellow fever sufferers if forwarded to us we will distribute them.

[Signed] A. D. LANGSTAFF, President Howard Ass'n. Four deaths from yellow fever in the suburbs. Little Rock having raised quarantine restrictions trains are now being regularly run to that city.

NEW YORK, October 29.—Depositors thronged about the Manhattan Savings Institution to-day, and was informed that their money was all right, and would be paid, if needed at the end of sixty days. Circulars have been issued setting forth their numbers and other particulars of the stolen bonds.

No arrests have as yet been made. The private owners of some of the stolen property offer rewards for its restoration.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 29.—The Maryland Democrats are uneasy about their prospects in the Sixth District, and admit that unless the greenback candidate can be induced to withdraw, the Republicans will elect Mr. Urner, their candidate. The Greenback vote will be drawn almost entirely from the Democrats.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The following Congressional nominations have been made: Sixth District, anti-Tammany, Maurice De Vries; Seventh District, anti-Tammany and Republican, Edwin Einstein; Eleventh District, Greenback, O. Curtis Hoffman.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Oct. 29.—The Associated Press dispatches last night omitted the closing sentence of Secretary McCrary's letter on the October Congressional elections, published in the Huskery this morning. It is as follows:

"I confess that I think it extremely doubtful that I am not sure that it would not be best for the Republicans to turn out in November and out vote the Democrats wherever they attempt to hold an election. Yours sincerely, GEO. W. MCCRARY."

To Hon. Charles Beardsley, Burlington.

IT CAN BE PROVEN That the flavor given to cakes, puddings, creams and sauces, by Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts, are as natural as the fruit from which they are made, and as much unlike, in delicate flavor and strength, the cheap extracts, as can possibly be imagined.

WHY THE HAIR FALLS OUT, AND HOW TO RESTORE IT TO STRENGTH AND GROWTH.—Each hair is sustained by a little vessel or gland, the latter being nourished by a small blood-vessel. As long as these blood-vessels furnish sufficient nourishment the hair will continue to grow; but if from disease or other cause they become torpid or obstructed, it will fall out, and will not grow again. It is now known that the wonderful virtues of "London Hair-Color Restorer" are manifested, as its tonic properties excite these hair follicles to increased activity and completely restore the scalp to a healthy condition, and a fine growth of hair in its natural youthful color is sure to be the result. Apart from its tonic and coloring qualities, "London Hair-Color Restorer" is the most cleanly and lasting of all hair dressings, making it indispensable on the toilet of every lady and gentleman. Sold at 75 cents a bottle by all leading druggists. April 7—d&w

FACT VERSUS THEORY.

On August 24, 1876, Western Union Telegraph sold at the New York Stock Exchange for 84 1/2 per share. September 18th, 1876, this same stock sold at 96 1/4—a fluctuation of 118.4 per cent. In 47 days, 10,000 shares of this stock bought at 84 1/2 on a margin of 1 per cent, required an actual capital of $10,000. The same stock sold at the advanced price, 96 1/4, showed a profit of $1170 per 100 shares, or 11.84 per cent on the stock.—On the whole 10,000 shares, the actual profit was $117,500 or 11.84 times the capital used within the brief space mentioned. People often theorize about speculative cases. The above are hard facts shown by the official record. Very few persons, however, are able to invest singly the $10,000 necessary to reap such fabulous profits as were gained by the above transaction, but Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City, have issued a new circular showing how large or small sums may be used successfully in stock speculations by their new Combination Method of pooling thousands of orders into one immense sum and operating them as a whole, which places every customer on an equality with the largest operators, and divides profits pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. By this system large profits are made in short periods. $15 would make $75, or five per cent.; $50 pays $250 or 5 per cent.; $100 makes $1,000, or 10 per cent. on the stock during the month, according to the market. The new circular explains everything; also contains "Two unerring rules for success in stock operations," and much other valuable information. Copyrighted and sent free. This firm furnishes best of references as to standing and responsibility. All kinds of Stocks and Bonds wanted. New Government Loan supplied. Apply to Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's Sufferer's Remedy will cure you of Liver Complaint, Catarrh of the Bladder, all its miserable effects, such as sick-headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual constipation, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, etc. Its sale now reaches every town on the Western Continent, and not a drug-store but will let you of it with all its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you. Aug 8—d&w

NO BROKEN PLEDGES.—The new Democratic policy would be in direct violation of the faith of the nation pledged by the act of June 30, 1864: "That the total amount of United States notes issued or to be issued shall not exceed four hundred millions, and such additional sum, not exceeding fifty millions, as may be temporarily required for the redemption of temporary loans." To violate that limit now, and in a time of peace, would be so fearfully ominous of repudiation as to discredit the paper itself and impair our national standing.

The citizens of Bloomington esteem it a great honor that Miss Von Ploner, the youthful Prima Donna, is a native of that city, and are about to testify their appreciation of the fact by purchasing and presenting to her mother a pleasant residence, so that the family may ever remain there and call Bloomington home. Such evidences of appreciation are rare and touching.

A couple of chaps whose movements were calculated to excite suspicion were noticed lurking about in back alleys between North Main and North Water streets last night. They may have been the same fellows who interviewed Frank Roach on Monday night.
HALLOWEEN to-morrow night, when cabbage will come by the wholesale, mysterious rappings will be heard, gates and signs removed, and the washing miss will stand before the glass combing her hair and see her future husband in the mirror peering over her shoulder.
Tomatoe soups on the gravelled streets ought to be raised about four inches before the wet season sets in. Even now a buggy or wagon gets unaccountably as they pass over. In the event of and by if they are not fixed pedestrians will think bad words while wading across with the mud over their top.
A FROSTY TRIP.—This forenoon a span of horses drawing the forward wheel of a wagon came dashing up Water street at a rapid gait with a driver, having the appearance of having run several miles. They were captured at the corner of Second & Second streets, and the driver was taken to a nearby stable for his horse and wagon, and the driver should make his appearance.

JUDSON—TRACY.

A Fashionable Wedding in the Country at High Noon to-day.

A brilliant wedding took place at the country residence of Mrs. John Carder, sister of the bride, 24 miles northwest of this city at 12:30 to-day, which was very largely attended by relatives and friends of the high contracting couple—Mr. C. O. Judson, Deane & Agent for the Illinois Central Road, and Mrs. Nellie Tracy, nee Park, were joined together in the holy bonds of matrimony, by Rev. MacBurney, pastor of Stapp's Chapel.
The bride was elegantly attired and was the recipient of many costly and useful presents.
Immediately after the ceremony the newly married couple and invited guests partook of a sumptuous repast. The tables fairly groaned with good things, and the cakes were perfectly delicious.
The following were among the invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rice, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kinsale, Chas. Shafer, James Park, Misses Rose and Eliza Perry, Thos. Hays and wife, Maggie Park, Mrs. E. Park, mother of the bride, Misses Nona Gibson and Jennie Stevens.
The bridal party left for Dubuque, Iowa, on the 8:45 train this afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. Judson will return in a few days and take up their residence on West Main street. The REPUBLICAN joins their many friends in wishing them much matrimonial bliss and worldly prosperity.

PERSONAL.
Mrs. Dr. Trowbridge will vacate the property on the corner of West William and Church streets, next week, and leave for Vera Cruz, Mexico. Mrs. D. J. Block will occupy the property as a boarding house.
Frank D. Patterson, representing one of the big shoe houses of the East, is in the city.
Charley Challis and Walter Bashforth will dissolve partnership on the 1st ult.
R. A. Newell made the REPUBLICAN office a call this morning.
Otto E. Currie, senior member of the jewelry firm of Currie & Ewing, left for St. Louis on the early train this morning.
Miss Nina Gillett, of Elkhart, is in the city, visiting her sister, Mrs. Senator Oglesby.
C. B. Prescott, the music dealer, and Prof. S. M. Lutz, the music teacher, called to see us to-day. Of course, they talked music and business.
Lewis Robertson, of Nandoval, has purchased the stock of drugs lately owned by Dr. A. C. Douglas, and will take possession Nov. 1st. Mr. Robertson is Dr. Douglas' father-in-law.
Will Fearn was out buggy riding yesterday.
Capt. Harvey Mahannah is home in time to vote.
We are indebted to Rev. Dr. Goodwin, pastor of the First M. E. church for a copy of the minutes of the Illinois Conference.
Gen. J. H. Moore, who has been confined to his house for several weeks by indisposition, is again able to be out. He is looking as if he had experienced a hard time.

J. B. Gleason, Esq., of Milan, was in town to-day, and called at the REPUBLICAN office. He is one of the best workers in the Republican ranks that Macon county has. He thinks Milan will give a good account of herself on Tuesday.
Charles Dickson, of Westerville, Ohio, son of Bishop Dickson formerly of this place, is in the city to-day on his way to Kansas City, Mo.
Will D. Eaton, representing the Chicago Times, gave us a call yesterday, and left for Springfield on the afternoon train.—Our Granger friends will remember Mr. Eaton, who made a "little trouble" in '76.
John Wilson, with Euther & Co., has secured a patent on counter supports for boots and shoes.
Morgan & Giffeland, of this city, are patients of dust defectors.
Mr. George A. Challis, of Lafayette, Ind., has engaged in the boot and shoe business in this city, with his brother Charles George has been among us several weeks, and being of a happy disposition has made many friends in the best society in the city. He is well posted in his business, and like his brother, deals fairly with everybody. We bespeak for the new firm of Challis & Bro. a future, if anything, more prosperous than the past.
J. Carmany gave himself away again last night near Stapp's Chapel. That young man ought to have a traveling companion.
Walter Bashforth, U. S. Express agent, called this morning and ordered the REPUBLICAN left at his office.

No CROCODS WITH THIS.—Suppose a man bought a watch from W. R. Abbott for $30, and gave him a counterfeit $100 bill, which he took to the bank and exchanged for good money, and he then gave the purchaser $75 and the watch, and the purchaser departs. The banker then comes to Abbott and says that $100 is counterfeit. How much would Abbott lose by the transaction?
Boarders Wanted.—N. Drake has opened a private boarding house at No. 37 East William street, and has several good rooms still left for any who may apply. Terms reasonable. oct24-dw

MON. W. R. JEWELL AT THE COURT HOUSE.

A Fair Audience in Attendance—A Telling Speech for Honest Money, and the Republican Party.

According to previous notice, W. R. Jewell delivered an address at the court house last night on the political issues of the day. His speech was confined mainly to the currency question and occupied fully two hours in its delivery.
The meeting was called to order by Judge Greer, and on motion, J. R. Mosser was called to the chair.
On coming forward the chairman introduced Mr. Jewell, who went at once to his work, and made what "the boys" would call a rattling talk. He said that political questions had been much discussed of late, which was right, for in a republican form of government where the people make the laws they need to be instructed in the science of good government.
The speaker said it was right that political parties should give an account of themselves to the people. It is right that their actions should be criticised, and especially the party having control of the government should be held to a strict account for the manner in which the affairs of the nation are administered by it.
The people are crying hard times; but, said the speaker, much harder times have been experienced since the organization of the government, and that, too, when the Democratic party was at the helm.
Allusion was made to the fact that under Buchanan's administration, when the country was at peace with all the world, the government paid 12 per cent. interest on its loans, while now it pays but four. While it is true that the times are somewhat hard, the Republican party was not responsible, but the people, they having produced hard times by extravagant modes of living. The speaker said he was not here to discuss past issues, but questions which at present occupy the public mind.
The allegation made by greenbackers that the currency of the country was being contracted, was shown to be without foundation, and that on the contrary there had been a constant and healthy expansion since the administration of Secretary McCullough, and that the contraction which then took place was but slight, and was brought about by the joint action of Democrats and Republicans in Congress.
Allusion was made to the speculative tendencies of people as the prime cause of the hard times. Men bought lots at fabulous and fictitious prices; towns were laid out which had an existence only on paper, and lots were bought by speculators for a thousand dollars that were worth but a hundred, giving their notes therefor; and, of course, when these notes matured and the lots could not be sold, all they had was sacrificed to meet the demands against them. Sundry instances of this kind were cited as illustrations of what produced the hard times.
The speaker then took up and dissected the theories of the genuine greenbackers of these times, and the utter worthlessness of the currency which they desire to put afloat, was shown up in a manner which showed the supreme ridiculousness of the greenback doctrine, and in this connection the financial standing of Jesse Harper, the Greenback candidate for Congress, was commented upon in terms not very complimentary to that gentleman.
The points dwelt upon by Mr. Jewell were clearly put, and his ideas on the currency question were well sustained by argument, and the speech throughout seemed to give good satisfaction, if hearty applause is any indication of approval.
At the conclusion of Mr. Jewell's remarks the meeting adjourned.

A NEW LITERARY SOCIETY.—A literary society, composed of young ladies and gentlemen, was organized last evening in the lecture room of Stapp's Chapel. This society will hereafter be known as "Stapp's Chapel Academy." The organization was effected through the efforts of Rev. Mr. MacBurney, who was the originator of this good move, for it is one in the right direction, and will no doubt be of great benefit to the young people of the city. All are entitled to become members who are between the age of 15 and 30 years. The society will hereafter meet on Tuesday evening of each week in the lecture room of Stapp's Chapel. The exercises will consist of music, select readings, essays, recitations, etc. This society should receive the encouragement of all the young ladies and gentlemen of our city. No expense is attached to this society in the shape of fees or dues.

Joy to the Afflicted.—One of our most eminent American Chemists has discovered a process whereby he obtains, in a palatable form, all the active medicinal properties of the East India Chinchona bark, without disturbing the irritant and inert matter. In this preparation the alkaloids are in their native combinations, and the same proportions of the ingredients are maintained as exist in the celebrated bark from the Nigiberry Hills.—This preparation is called CHINQUON'S FERRUGINOUS, and is fast taking the place of Quinine and the so-called Ague Cures, etc., in the market.

A GOOD AVERAGE.—The Taylorville Guards, Co. B, 6th Regiment, I. N. G., on Oct. 18th had their first rifle practice, 35 men shooting at a regulation target, distance 100 yards, under the inspection of Major Wm. T. Vandever. The men made seven shots each, making a total score of 545—an average of 20 and 5-28ths. The Captain, S. McKnight, made a score of 28, and Major Vandever scored 29.—The Grenadiers' score, it will be remembered was 18.
